During the War of 1861-65 he enlisted in the Tenth Kentucky Cavalry. After serving his time he re-enlisted in the Sixteenth Kentucky Infantry.

WAS BORN HERE

Mrs. John J. Jackson, Burned to Death in Louisville

Mrs. Nancy Burgoyne Jackson, aged 82, was burned to death Saturday morning at her home in Louisville while her husband, John J. Jackson, aged 85, was painfully injured in a brave but futile effort to save her life.

She was walking past the grate when her dress caught fire.

Mrs. Jackson was born in this city April 28th, 1823, but had lived in Louisville for nearly three decades.

She was a daughter of Otho Burgoyne, a pioneer settler of Ohio and a nephew of General Burgoyne, the British General who surrendered at Saratoga during the Revolution.

Mrs. Jackson was a sister of Mr. O. D. Burgoyne of Hall street, Fifth Ward.

SERIOUS CHARGE

Wm. Neville Said to Have Attempted to Fire the Cotton Mills

William Neville was placed in jail yesterday by Squire Dresel in default of a $300 bond for his appearance today on a most serious charge—that of arson.

Last Monday week the Maysville Cotton Mills—in which over two hundred men, women and children over 14 years of age are employed—was discovered to be afire in the picker room three separate times.

The manner and frequency of the fires aroused the suspicion of the proprietors that it was the work of an incendiary.

A watch was set to trap him.

Sunday Nevil'e was seen to enter the picker room and thrust his hand into a pile of loose cotton.

The matter was reported to Henry Crawford, one of the bosses of the factory, and upon investigation he found a handful of matches deposited in the cotton.

Had the mill started up Monday morning with the fire brand in the cotton there undoubtedly would have been a conflagration with a probable large loss of life—notwithstanding the mill is splendidly equipped for fighting fire.

It can hardly be realized that a person would do such an inhuman and horrible act.

An agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect is produced by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all Druggists.

WILL poor old Kentucky's woes never cease? Jo BLACKBURN is in eruption again and threatens to canvass every county in the state.

HAVING predicted about everything that hasn't happened during the past ten years, Mr. BRYAN is now predicting Democratic success in 1908.

JUDGE JAMES HARGIS, County Judge of Breathitt and member of the Democratic State Central Committee, who was charged $8,000 for his share in the murder of Attorney JAMES B. MARCUS, and has been indicted by a Fayette County Grand Jury for the killing of JAMES COCKRILL at Jackson, is the gentleman who has given the people of Kentucky to understand that he "will do as he damn pleases." And it seems that he does.

A PROMINENT citizen of Greater New York has given it as his opinion that the utter lack of regard for convenience and beauty manifested in the planning and construction of the

The Tax on Municipal Ugliness. Brooklyn terminal of the East River Bridge has cost the municipality of Brooklyn $50,000,000 in loss of real estate values. The estimate may be exaggerated, but there is at least enough truth in it to set people thinking. The popular view of the planning of public works has been that it is all very well to pay some attention to the requirements of beauty when there is plenty of money on hand for the purpose, but that at the best beauty is a luxury that is a heavy drain on the taxpayer.

If Mr. EDWARD M. SHEPARD is right the truth is just the other way around. It is ugliness, and not beauty, that costs money, and for which the taxpayer, directly or indirectly, is obliged to pay enormously.

A little reasoning ought to convince one of the wisdom of Mr. SHEPARD's assertion. The city or town or village where public improvements are planned and carried out with regard to some other considerations than those of bare utilitarianism never lacks for means to make such improvements. As improvements are made, property increases in value, and owners and the community at large are mutually benefited. There is no more practical illustration of the Scriptural declaration that to him that hath shall be given, and that from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

One of the things that the people of our cities need to have impressed upon them is that beauty is an asset and that ugliness is a liability, and that the movement in behalf of municipal improvement that is making such noteworthy headway in various parts of the country has back of it something more than an aesthetic impulse. It is based on a recognition of the fact that the people are entitled to beautiful and wholesome surroundings as a right and not as a privilege, and that no more beneficent investment of public resources can be made than to build a city where beauty shall be the common heritage of all who dwell therein.

Eggs are high and are going to stay high—are more likely to go higher than lower. Whether your hens lay or not depends on whether you give them egg-making materials.

To the Readers of This Valuable Paper and the Public Generally

An era of prosperity is slowly but surely dawning upon this community. The wide awake merchant adapts himself to conditions surrounding him. Better times mean more money; more money means more demand. We have, therefore, purchased the largest and best lines of spring merchandise we ever carried.

While our people demand the best goods, they are of a thrifty and economical turn and like to have 100 cents for every dollar they invest.

We believe we are in position to buy as cheap, if not cheaper, than most merchants, having a resident buyer in one of the largest commercial centers and buying for our several stores.

Among other lines we will show the largest and best selected line of Millinery ever shown in this section.

Our new offerings for this week consist of Silks, new Dress Goods, White Goods, Lace, Embroideries.

Thanking you for past favors, we are yours,
